
The Gynaecology Clinic

Mr. Chris Mann MBChB, BSc. (Hons), MD, MRCOG

Consultant Gynaecological Oncologist and Laparoscopic Surgeon and founder of The Gynaecology Clinic Group

Areas of expertise

- General gynaecology
- Gynaecological oncology
- Colposcopy and cervical screening
- Laparoscopic gynaecological surgery, including complications/negligence associated with this
- Pelvic injury following trauma
- Miscarriage up to 14 weeks following trauma or road traffic accident
- Rape and sexual abuse

Medico-legal training

- Accredited Member of the Expert Witness Institute
- Bond Solon Cross-Examination Day (2005)
- Bond Solon Excellence in Report Writing (2004)
- Bond Solon Courtroom Skills (2004)

One of the UK's leading practising gynaecological consultants, Mr. Chris Mann is a Consultant Gynaecological Oncologist and Laparoscopic Surgeon at Royal Wolverhampton Hospitals NHS Trust.

He has published extensively in peer reviewed journals in the fields of gynae-oncology, minimal access surgery, colposcopy and general gynaecology and has lectured internationally on endometriosis, female oncology and laparoscopic surgery.

Mr. Mann has undergone medico-legal training and has acted as an expert witness for claimant, defendant and single joint expert and can provide high quality, concise, independent reports.

Key facts about Mr. Chris Mann

- Lead clinician for The Midlands Endometriosis Centre
- The first surgeon in the Midlands to perform a day-case keyhole hysterectomy
- President of the charity, The Endometriosis SheTrust
- Accredited Teacher for Advanced Laparoscopy Surgery
- Accredited gynaecological oncologist with the Royal College of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists
- Member of the British Society for Gynaecological Endoscopy, British Society for Colposcopy & Cervical Pathology, British Medical Association, International Society for Gynaecological Endoscopy and the Birmingham & Midlands Obstetrical & Gynaecological Society.
- International lecturer, active researcher and author of more than 30 papers in peer-reviewed journals
- Qualified in 1988 at the University of Leicester Medical School and a consultant since 2003.

Qualifications

- BSc Human Biology, Loughborough University (1983)
 - MB ChB, Leicester University (1988)
 - MRCOG, Royal College of Obstetricians & Gynaecologists (1994)
 - MD, University of Birmingham (2001)
 - BSCCP, Accreditation as Practitioner & Trainer (2000)
 - RCOG, Accreditation in Minimal Access Surgery Intermediate (2000)
 - RCOG, Accredited Sub-specialist in Gynaecological Oncology as Practitioner & Trainer (2000)
 - RCOG, Level 2 Preceptor status in Minimal Access Surgery (2004)
-
- Mr. Mann is happy to accept requests for medico-legal reports and medical negligence.
 - Reports in cases of personal injury are usually completed within two weeks of meeting the client.
 - Waiting time for appointments in personal injury cases is approximately four weeks from receipt of case notes. Due to their complexity, reports in cases of professional negligence usually take a little longer.
 - Mr. Mann can discuss a potential instruction by telephone with instructing solicitors or medico-legal reporting companies.

thegynaecclinic.co.uk

Contact

Ms Sue Wilcox, Secretary to Mr C.H.Mann and The Gynaecology Group Practice Manager

E: info@thegynaecclinic.co.uk

T: 0121 444 6246

Clinic Address

BMI The Edgbaston Hospital, 22 Somerset Road, Edgbaston, Birmingham, B15 2QQ.